

Origins Sermon Series

An aerial photograph of a vast, flat landscape, likely a coastal plain or a large field, captured during the golden hour of sunset or sunrise. The horizon is a bright, glowing line of orange and yellow light, with the sun's rays creating long, dark shadows that stretch across the terrain. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall scene is serene and expansive.

Hebrews 11:9,10

By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Galatians 3:16

The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. Scripture does not say 'and to seeds', meaning many people, but 'and to your seed', meaning one person, who is Christ.
